1. Tagbilaran "Tricycle" City Tour – Usd 23.00 pp

Moving around the city by public transport – the three wheeled "tricycle" can be an interesting experience. The central market displays the agricultural and marine Product of the province while in Torralba market you find locally produced handicraft. Across the town plaza is the St. Joseph Cathedral, originally built in 1767 by the Jesuit Mission. Across the Cathedral is another old Spanish-built edifice, which now houses Government offices. A walking distance is the Bohol National Museum, which displays Historical artifacts of the province.

2. Tarsiers Trek - Usd 36.00 pp

An early morning trek into the natural habitat of the oldest known primate "The Tarsier". After a 30-minute ride from the capital city of Tagbilaran, you reach Corella Town; the Tarsier sanctuary managed by the Philippine Tarsier Foundation. At the Visitor center, An expert will give a briefing on the characteristics & behavior of the Tarsier and the Conservation efforts of the Foundation. Then the trek commences. The foundation has established at least 3 different walking trails of different categories. A local ranger will Accompany the trek. Walking shoes is a must. For extra protection, put on a long-sleeved blouse and don't forget the insect repellent lotion. Extra shirt might be useful after the trek. Trekking is for about 60 – 90 minutes, you are back at the Visitor Center. While You relax and share with each other your experiences with the tarsier, packed breakfast is served.

3. Pamilacan Dolphin & Whale Watching Expedition – Usd 95.00 pp

An early morning boat trip to the seawaters southeast of the capital city of Tagbilaran, on board a motorized outrigger boat. The crews are former Whale hunters who now work as "Whale Spotters" for this tour. During the boat ride, these "spotters" usually stand at the Boat's bow. He signals the direction to the Whales or Dolphins. Boat ride can be between 1-2 hrs before any sightings. Several species of Dolphins including the playful spinner dolphins are considered resident in the area. At least 6 different species of Whales (toothed & baleen) are also sighted in between April-June. However, Toothed Whales are reportedly sighted during February to as late as November while Baleen whales are sighted from February to August. At midday, you head for the island of Pamilacan for a sumptuous lunch prepared and served by womenfolk's association. The afternoon may be spent for a walking tour around the island to see how former "Whale Hunters" live. Or better still, swim in the crystal clear waters right in front of A Spanish Fort or snorkel in the "sanctuary" where colorful marine life is in abundance.
