

north round tour for 5 days

Banaue – Mt. Data – Baguio

DAY 01

Meeting with tour representative at the hotel lobby for your north round tour. Travel north on the expressway and the Cagayan Valley road, until the town of Bagabag in Nueva Vizcaya where we start our climb to Banaue 1,300 meters above sea level. Check-in Banaue Hotel. Proceed to viewpoint, indulge in the patiently carved rice terraces 4,800 feet above sea level. Overnight.

DAY 02

Breakfast at the hotel. Ride a jeepney and proceed to the village of Banga-an 2 kms further at the junction leading to Batad. Here, you can see a typical ifugao village. People here still live the lifestyle of their ancestors long gone. Overnight.

DAY 03

Breakfast at the hotel. Drive inland along the winding mountain trail and hinterland town of Bontoc, where the museum founded by Belgian Sisters is visited. Continue the drive through a winding narrow road of unspeakable beauty towards mount Data, atop of which is Mount Data Lodge. Overnight.

DAY 04

Breakfast at the Lodge. Drive through the majestic scenery of Baguio City, the country's summer capital. Check-in and overnight at the El-Cielito Hotel.

DAY 05

Breakfast at the hotel. Morning city tour of Baguio. Return to Manila via the National Highway passing through Luzon's Central Plains, towards the North Expressway. Arrive at Manila late afternoon, with direct transfer to International Airport or to your hotel for those with beach extensions.
